RUMANIA

NEAR WAR.

Troops Wear Field Service

Uniforms at Coronation

Anniversary.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.

LONDON, May 22, 2:15 a.m.

The general belief that Rumania is on the brink of war for the fulfillment of her national ideals has been strengthened by Italy's declaration of war against Austria-Hungary," says the Times correspondent at Bucharest. "Celebrations of the anniversary of the coronation of the late King Carol were held Sunday and were attended with unusual fervor. King Ferdinand and Queen Marie were present at a great military review. The troops wore their field service uniforms of gray khaki instead of the usual dress parade uniform."

WALSH SCORED

BY A WITNESS.

Is Denounced by Rockefeller

Foundation Director.

Some Lively Back Fire by the Commission's Chairman.

A Citizen Who Defies John D.

Apologizes for Wrath.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 24.—W. L. Mackenzie King, director of the industrial relations department of the Rockefeller Foundation and a former Canadian cabinet officer, interrupted his testimony before the Federal Industrial Relations Commission today to roundly denounce the methods of the commission's Colorado strike inquiry.

"I have seen witness after witness on the stand here treated in a manner that was anything but fair," he said. "In the name of labor I protest against the way this hearing has been conducted."

"You do not like the way investigations are conducted in this country?"

"I do not like the way this hearing has been conducted," replied the witness.

"You do not like this commission's conduct of the hearings?"

"I do not like the way you, Mr. Chairman, have conducted the examination of witnesses."

"Then you exonerate the rest of the commission?"

"Oh, yes,"

"Is your objection to the examination," asked the chairman, "based on your observation of the examination of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and is it based in part by the statement you heard a witness make here that he was guilty of high treason and should be punished?"

Mr. King said he spoke only of the general examination of all witnesses. He was questioned at length about his services to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and to the foundation. He declined to say what salary he received.

The witness's outburst against Chairman Walsh came in the midst of questioning regarding plan suggested by him to Mr. Rockefeller for dealing with the situation in the Colorado coal fields. The chairman sought to show that the plan would have eliminated union representation on boards of conciliation between employers and the miners. Mr. King objected to any inference that he was unfriendly to organized labor.

L. M. Bowers, veteran former treasurer of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company and an active member of the personal business staff of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., occupied the stand for the greater part of the afternoon. He was questioned closely as to the conduct of the strike by the coal companies and disclaimed responsibility for the violence and bloodshed which characterized the disturbance.

Mr. Bowers showed the effects of recent illness and frequently was agitated by the questioning. He told of his efforts to improve conditions in the coal fields after he went there in 1907, but did not defend the officers of the company prior to that time, nor would he assume responsibility for the present officers, other than himself. He was emphatic and sometimes he apologized for being "wrathy" in his manner.

As he concluded, the witness arose and said to the commission:

"John D. Rockefeller, Sr., John D. Rockefeller, Jr., nor anyone else ever dictated to me a gesture of helplessness. I have worked just as hard as any coal miner. If it had been for me to do I would have met the representatives of the coal miners and tried to settle differences."

Bowers said he considered the strike a contest for "individual industrial independence."

Walsh read a letter to Mr. Rockefeller praising the latter's testimony before the House committee investigating the Colorado situation.

"I believe the position you so ruggedly maintained will do more for the cause of the millions of laboring men than all the efforts of social reformers in as many years," he wrote.

"It will set thousands of faltering employees to thinking and inspire confidence and spur them to activity in opposing the schemes of politicians, Socialist and religious demagogues who are in the clutches of the labor union leaders, whose aim is to shut the open shops. Now, for an aggressive warfare to 1916 and beyond for the open shop."

"Where the political wire pullers you mentioned here the members of the committee of the representatives of the people acting with the authority of the House?" asked the chairman.

"This is private correspondence," responded Bowers. "It was a letter between business friends and never was expected to be made public." He added, he believed "the committee was biased and was made up in a political manner that was not fair to those under investigation."

Walsh spoke of a letter in which Bowers wrote of giving "laffy" to Gov. Ammons.

"Did your mother ever spank you and then give you a piece of candy or a cookie?" returned the witness.

The committee and spectators joined in laughter as Mr. Walsh answered:

"She certainly did."

"Well, that is just what I meant."

"Then your political policy as a representative of the Rockefeller interests," said the chairman, "is that when a public official does not do what you want him to do you spank him and when he does what you think is right, you give him a piece of candy?"

"That's right."

"The whipping into line of Gov. Ammons," said Bowers, "consisted of bringing every possible influence to bear to get him to bring out the militia to protect life and property."

Bowers agreed with Chairman Walsh that Sheriff Jeff Farr of Huerfano county was "the king of the county." He said he objected to Farr's political and business tactics but that the coal company had been for years connected with Farr and his organization.

"The Colorado Fuel and Iron Company," he said, "were connected with this condition and were a part of it. The officers of the company did it. I don't deny it. They were working with Farr and his organization."

Later Bowers said the company had a saloon connection.

"I have seen the saloon business, weren't they?" asked the chairman.

"Yes," he replied.

Under cross-examination by Commissioner Weinstein Bowers testified that after he joined the company he eliminated the connection with Farr. He explained that in the early days of the company an officer of the concern, now dead, organized a partnership between the company and Farr for the conduct of saloons in the mining camps, which were used as employment agencies.

This pernicious and damnable system," said Bowers, "was in force when I became an officer of the company. I fought it. The system is as strong as Tammany Hall. They control every man that is put up for office."

Bowers said he had fought for state prohibition in Colorado as a means of eliminating the system.

The Rev. Eugene Gaddis was recalled by Chairman Walsh, who read telegrams from President Wilson of the coal company and from W. W. Wilson, who served on the jury which convicted John Lawson, labor leader. He was questioned at length about his murder, had an exclusive selling privilege for certain foodstuffs in the company stores. Weinstein's telegram set forth that the company carried on exclusive privileges and Wilson's telegram denounced the statement of Gaddis as a "villainous lie." Gaddis explained circumstances which led him to believe that Wilson had been murdered. He insisted that the Wilson was "known as a company man" and that it was known that he was "lined up with the operators."

Commissioner Weinstein read into the record portions of the report of the Colorado Military Commission headed by Maj. E. J. Boughton, the battle of Ludlow. Mr. Bowers, who again took the stand devoted to comment on it. It moved him deeply and at times he covered his eyes with his hand.

"I have no comment to make at all," he broke forth hurriedly as the record concluded, flinging his hands before him, with a gesture of helplessness. "It was a sickening, disgusting, disgraceful piece of work and I wish I could forget all about it and see justice done to all who were concerned."

Nothing later the witness said:

"Nothing of that kind would have happened if we had had a Governor in Colorado who would have protected everybody concerned."

As he concluded, the witness arose and said to the commission:

"John D. Rockefeller, Sr., John D. Rockefeller, Jr., nor anyone else ever dictated to me a gesture of helplessness. I have worked just as hard as any coal miner. If it had been for me to do I would have met the representatives of the coal miners and tried to settle differences."

Bowers said he considered the strike a contest for "individual industrial independence."

Union Theological Seminary

Denounced by Report.

Dr. Matthews Says Teachings

Officers Accused of Being

False to Trusts.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ROCHESTER (N. Y.) May 24.—A beginning of the struggle that had been expected over the report of the special committee of the Union Theological Seminary of New York was made at this afternoon's session of the 12th general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States. In spite of opposition from the floor, Dr. Mark A. Matthews of Seattle, Wash., a former moderator and chairman of the committee which prepared the report, read virtually the whole report. Friends of Union Seminary called the reading a filibuster.

The report declares that the seminary "in teaching spirit and by direct and formal act, has ceased to be in any sense a Presbyterian institution as distinguished from any other denomination."

In advocating the adoption of the report, Dr. Matthews charged that the seminary authorities have acted false to their moral, theological and legal trusts by obtaining money from Presbyterians for the maintenance of an institution which, he says, does not conform to the standards of the Presbyterian church.

He charged that $2,362,500 has accrued to the seminary, much of which was obtained in response to an appeal based on the ground that the institution was entitled to the financial support of Presbyterians on the claim that it taught the doctrines of that church. Dr. Matthews said that the legal return of the money was not desired.

SOUTHERN PRESBYTERIANS.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEWPORT NEWS (Va.) May 24.—The general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church today reaffirmed its opposition to the liquor traffic, but declared against action that would place the assembly on record as supporting any political organization further than to "humbly petition or advise."

This action, it was said, did not reveal the resolution advocating national prohibition adopted last year, as each assembly is a distinct body and cannot undo what has been done previously.

LONDON, May 24.—Progress in the formation of the new coalition Ministry was made at conferences held today at the residence of Premier Asquith in Downing street. The details of the new Ministry were not sufficiently advanced, however, for an announcement of its personnel to be made this evening.

Senator Oliver Coming.

Senator George T. Oliver of Pennsylvania will arrive here at 2:30 o'clock p.m., Thursday, in the private car "Tyron" according to advice received yesterday by the Santa Fe. Mr. Oliver succeeded Philander C. Knox in the United States Senate. He is also president of the Youngstown Car Manufacturing Company.

Plans for Convention.

Final details of the plans for the entertainment of the Pacific Coast Advertising Men's Association in annual convention, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, will be taken up today at the Advertising Club's weekly luncheon at the Hotel Clark. Harry Carroll, advertising manager of the Broadway Department Store, will be chairman of the meeting.

Salt Lake Head En Route.

Former Senator W. A. Clark, multimillionaire copper man and president of the Salt Lake, will leave New York this week on his way to the Pacific Coast, according to advice received yesterday at the office of Second Vice-President Clark of the railroad company. The big copper man expects to stop off at Jerome, Ariz., for an indefinite stay, en route here.

Lost Boys and Girls Found.

The party of three boys and two girls who lost their way in Little Bear Canyon Sunday returned to their homes yesterday afternoon. They started for home Sunday evening but darkness overtook them before they got half way down the canyon and they decided to camp for the night.

Decision of Local Land Office Will Not End Ill-Feeling Over Imperial Tract.

A contested land case that will go down in the archives of the local Land Office as the foundation of more bad blood and ill-feeling among neighbors than anything that office has investigated in recent years, was decided yesterday by Register Roche and Receiver Mitchell.

Decision of Local Land Office Will Not End Ill-Feeling Over Imperial Tract.

The action was that of Peter Bartimus against Lillie E. Martin. Bartimus is a grader in the vicinity of Brawley and Miss Martin, a resident of Los Angeles. A half section of land was involved and the war between rival grading camps as a result of the litigation was so bitter that Register Roche and Receiver Mitchell had to make a special trip into the Imperial Valley to personally look over the land before the parties to the contest would be satisfied. The action of the local land office in awarding the land to the contestant is likely to start another feud that will be hard to manage.

Business Briefs.

Edward B. Warman, distinguished orator and philosopher lectures tonight, 8 o'clock, at four following Tuesday, Cuneo Hall, 1500 Figueroa street. Tonight's subject, "Character Reading, or Man a Trifling Being." Single admission 50 cents. Ticket for course, $1.50.

For quick action drop answers to Times "lines" in Times liner boxes in downtown office buildings.

The locations of the boxes are printed in the first column of the Times "line" section.

The charge against Miss Martin was that she did not fulfill the law as to the amount of work performed, and the decision is against her.

The case will be appealed and carried up to the Secretary of the Interior, so bitter is the feeling. The principals are not the only ones interested, but neighborhoods are all "hot" up.

GO, DON'T ELOPE, TO SANTA ANA.

VETERAN PROBATION OFFICER AND WIDOW WED.

Nearly seventy and for sixteen years a County Official, Mr. Dodds tries to "Dodge the Newspapers" by Getting Married in Most Closely-Watched Place of All.

Doing their best to escape publicity, Adam C. Dodds, 68 years old, veteran probation officer of Los Angeles county, and Mrs. Isabel Tilden Crossette, 61 years old, of Pasadena, boarded a trolley car yesterday morning, rode to Santa Ana and were married by Rev. J. H. Scott, probation officer of Orange county, and close personal friend of the bridegroom. Immediately following the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple returned to Pasadena. Placing his bride in charge of his residence at No. 140 South Mentor street, Mr. Dodds went back to his office in the Hall of Records and resumed his duties, as if nothing had happened.

When confronted yesterday afternoon with the report of his impromptu wedding, Mr. Dodds confessed.

"I don't see anything wonderful in just getting married," he said. "I have known Mrs. Crossette—pardon me, Mrs. Dodds—for ten months now. We met in Pasadena.

"When we discovered we were fitted for each other we simply decided to get married and travel the rest of our journey together. So we got on a street car and went out to Santa Ana.

"My son, C. T. Dodds, who, with his wife has been living at my Pasadena home temporarily, knew all about it, and heartily approved of the marriage. The only reason we went to Santa Ana was to escape the newspapers. There must have been a slip-up somewhere, as I see I am caught.

"There was no cause for a huge celebration, so after the ceremony I took my wife home and then came right back to work. I had a lot of work to take care of today, and I couldn't pass it up just because I got married, you know."

Mr. Dodds has been probation officer in this county since 1899, and is widely known in Southern California. His friends in this city are planning a celebration in his honor today.

ORDERED TO PRISON.

A remittitur was issued out of the District Court of Appeal yesterday in the case of Philip Kilfoil, convicted of a statutory offense against Lillian Palmer, and sentenced to twenty years in San Quentin. There is nothing for Kilfoil to do now but begin his term. At present he is at liberty on bail. He was convicted in Judge Williams' court, and the judgment of the lower court was affirmed by the District Court of Appeal. He applied to the Supreme Court for a rehearing and his prayer was denied. The case then came back to the court last deciding the issue.

PERSONALS

John Clark, Chief of Police of Portland, Or., one of the largest cities in America, standing about 6 ft. tall, and weighing approximately 300 pounds, is a guest at the Clark while here on a pleasure trip.

Dr. and Mrs. P. P. Johnson, R. Robertson of Beverly, Mass., and Jeff H. Miller, president of one of the railroad companies of Texas, arrived by automobile from Houston, Tex. They are staying at the Westminster.

E. D. Miller, proprietor of the San Diego Hotel at San Diego, and the Barbara Worth at El Centro, is staying at the Westminster.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Thornton and H. A. Thornton are guests at the Van Nuys, where they registered from San Francisco. Mr. Thornton is Pacific Coast agent for the London Assurance Society.

For the woman of an economical turn of mind these dainty undergarments of nainsook or soft long cloth possess a certain charm. The models—in the simple tailored effects or elaborate with lace, embroidery, tucks and hand embroidery are for this "May White Sale" offered at such ridiculously low prices that few women can well afford to let the opportunity slip by. The reason for this unusual unloading of merchandise is that the lines are broken, many of the garments damaged—and some soiled, from showing. However, they are at their worth plainly enough. You must see these goods to appreciate the value.

A "True Bill" for Every Taxpayer.

NEW YORK'S MAYOR
UNEXPECTED VISITOR.

A TALL young man, with a little gray at the temples and the general appearance of a mainline idol, rushed into the lobby of yesterday afternoon, and Mayor Mitchell of New York was visiting Los Angeles.

Rushed is the precise word that should be used in connection with Mayor Mitchell on this and other occasions, for he proved himself a strenuous individual. Not only did he rush into the hotel, but he almost immediately rushed out again, accompanied by Mrs. Mitchell and their accompanying companion, Don Barber, "not connected with New York's or any other government," he said himself.

The rush was for an automobile, in which the youngest Mayor of the biggest country in the world and his pretty wife and their companion spent four hours seeing the beaches. This time they could time the city and themselves, for the distinguished visitors arrived at 2:45 o'clock from the East and left at 4 o'clock for San Francisco.

"The biggest thing that is happening in New York politically is the making of our new State Constitution," said Mayor Mitchell, as he hesi-tated just an instant in the lobby of the Alexandria on his way from the automobile to the dining-room.

"It will give us home rule in cities, perfect autonomy," he said, as he stood, poised as if for flight, but with a gracious smile on his face. "It will give cities control of their pay rolls, the right to spend their money as they see fit. It will, furthermore, give us complete control of our utilities.
Most important, however, it will give us control of our finances."

"In other words, the Tammany hand will be lifted from the pocketbook, finally and irrevocably," he suggested.

"We flatter ourselves in New York," he answered, "that the day of Tammany domination is over; was over several years ago."

Other, and in fact all political events were dominated by Mayor Mitchell as he was weighed down by the faithful game of diplomacy now being played across the waters of the Atlantic to keep this country out of the maelstrom of war.

"It is a fine spectacle the way the whole country is standing behind President Wilson," he said. "It is as if it should be; all political lines erased in a moment of crisis. I have noted it and appreciated it in my trip across the country. Everywhere the newspapers, irrespective of political leanings, are to be found for America first, and business conditions in New York, Mayor Mitchell stated, were "looking casions, "there is a decided improvement there, as well as through the country."

Aside from his attention to the minutes, Mayor Mitchell evidenced no symptoms of being weighed down with the cares of piloting the biggest city of the country through troubled political waters. In fact, the symptoms were all the other way, as when he was asked if it was true that he is a tax champion.

"Well, I never won any contests yet," he replied with a laugh. "Fact is, I never danced the tango, though

Many Benevolences.

Announcing his desire to lighten as far as he is able the burden that befall the widowed and destitute mothers of Los Angeles who are called upon to support their children, O. T. Johnson, local capitalist and philanthropist, is about to add another to the works of charity and benevolence which he has placed to his credit in the past decade. In its power for the alleviation of the tragedies of life the newest monument to Mr. Johnson's purpose to serve humanity promises to rank with the large Crittenden Home for Girls in North Los Angeles, which he recently completed and donated to the city.

In Sunday's Times there was published the architect's perspective of a unique model preproof apartment-house group, started by Mr. Johnson last week ago, in the Crown Hill district. This $100,000 group of buildings, Mr. Johnson stated yesterday, will immediately upon its completion be given outright to the city of Los Angeles to be managed and maintained under the auspices of the Municipal Housing Commission as a home for destitute widows.

The project, which has been fully described in so far as architectural details are concerned, calls for the construction of five reinforced concrete buildings on a large site extending from Collins avenue to Bolina avenue and lying between Sixth street and Crown Hill avenue. Four of the structures will be grouped along the two sides of a central court and the fifth building will be a long row on one side for the sole use of children.

Under the plan of Mr. Johnson, as it has been worked out in conjunction with the Housing Commission, the apartments will be rented for merely nominal sums, barely covering the cost of maintenance. Mothers going away to their work will be able to leave their little ones in charge of a special attendant, who will amuse the babies in the nursery and supervise the outdoor play of the larger tots. Thus will be removed that greatest of all difficulties of the mother who is forced to work for wages, the problem of caring for her young children.

Under the supervision of the architect, A. B. Benton, the foundation work of the building is now going on.
The construction of the group, it is announced, is to be rushed with all possible speed that the property completed, may be devoted to the city this fall.

SIX WEEKS TO TELL THE TALE.

Former L.A.I. Directors Go to Trial this Morning.

Much Difficulty Anticipated in Getting a Jury.

Special Venue of Hundred Talesmen is Ordered.

The prosecution by the government of former officers and employees of the Los Angeles Investment Company, charged with using the mails in a scheme to defraud in connection with that corporation and its allied concerns, will begin this morning before United States District Judge Bledsoe and a jury.

The defendants are Charles A. Elder, former president of the corporation, represented by Oscar Lawler and F. McD. Spencer; Charles C. Davis, first vice-president and counsel for the old board of directors, represented by J. B. Mayer; Ernest Ingold, head of publicity department, represented by Ray Nimmo; W. F. Gates, represented by Byron Hanna; C. L. Hagley, represented by Dudley Robinson; Earl B. Elder, A. P. Thompson and Harry D. Rodgers, second vice-president.

The government is making great preparations for the prosecution. Sylvester R. Rush, special assistant to Atty.-Gen. Gregory, has been here from Washington for more than a month conferring with Dist. Atty. Albert Schooner, and these officials, assisted by Expert Frank Rank, detailed by the Department of Justice nearly a year ago to examine the books of the Los Angeles Investment Company, and Postoffice Inspectors Charles S. Ragner, Walter Cookson and C. E. Webster will care for the interest of the government.

The charge against the defendants in a general way is that through various publications, owned and controlled by the Los Angeles Investment Company, the value of the stock of that corporation and other allied concerns was misrepresented to prospective purchasers; that the books were manipulated and various devices and crooked ways of doing business are alleged in the indictment first returned in December, 1911.

The government has had much trouble securing an indictment that would run the legal gamut of the court. The instrument upon which the defendants are to be tried is at least the third that has been in existence since the troubles of the Los Angeles Investment Company became public property.

It is feared there will be much trouble and delay in securing the jury, as the ramifications and holdings of the company were so extensive and the publicity given its affairs so wide. There are 15,000 stockholders in Los Angeles and vicinity and it may be hard to find twelve men who have not heard of the financial difficulties of the Los Angeles Investment Company, or who, if they have, will not be prejudiced against the defendants or the government. Judge Bledsoe has ordered a special venire of 100 talesmen to be called to the court to report this morning at 10 o'clock. The list is as follows:

Frederick A. Scherman, Robert W. Allen, Clifford W. Attabary, Thomas L. Bacon, George H. Bannister, Jefferson Barnhardt, Charles E. Barnich, Henry C. Berrie, William T. Bishop, George N. Black, Frank M. Boswell, Fred Boruff, Amos A. Burbank, Albert H. Busch, William Butten, Edwin M. Butler, Henderson V. Campbell, Harry Cordell, John K. Chalmers, Alexander R. Carrington, A. Emerson, Frank O. Engstrom, Adolph H. Fiken, John H. Flynn, Charles H. Fletcher, Robert F. Furlong, Robert E. Galt, Carl H. Galt, John W. Galbraith, John S. Glass, Alexander C. Grant, Arthur C. Harper, William F. Hartman, Stanley C. Hinchborn, Edward L. Hine, Fred C. Howe, Ralph B. Hubbard, William M. Hughes, C. H. Hine, Harry Jackson, Robert Johnson, Edgar V. Judah, J. O. Koepf, W. J. Lewis, Benjamin B. Lesker, Henry A. C. McPhail, P. Morton, Isaac D. Morgan, Edward F. Mullen, T. A. Murphy, William J. Nelson, John R. Newberry, Henry L. Nelson, Phillip Parker, Henry W. Pettibone, J. C. Oliver, William J. Peirce, Charles O. Poole, John N. Powell, Charles R. Raitt, Albert F. Robbins, Richard O. Robinson, Charles H. Rhode, William G. Satter, A. H. Sanborn, J. S. Sanborn, Howard J. Schoder, Joseph Simons, Frank Simpson, Harry Stotterbeck, Robert P. Smith, Edmund R. Smith, J. W. Sprague, Albert L. Stetson, William M. Tyler, John K. Urmaton, Albert Vinton, Frank R. Vasey, William H. Walker, Jr., Ernest R. Werdin, A. V. Witmer, G. P. Widney, William L. Whedon, E. E. Wilson, George F. Young, Adolph Zuber, John N. Powell, William J. Nelson and Edmund C. Lyon.

On account of the features of the case, concealed and hidden, it is expected that the hearing will continue for possibly six weeks. The government will use at least two weeks in presenting its case.

"PEARL KING" DIES.

Funeral Services Thursday for Jeweler of Note; in Business Here Fourteen Years.

Henry H. Wessendorf, 57 years old, manufacturing jeweler, known as the "Blister Pearl King," died yesterday afternoon at his residence, No. 725 West Thirtieth street. He leaves a widow and two daughters, Mrs. Pearl E. Saunders and Miss Grace E. Wessendorf.

Mr. Wessendorf was born in Missouri. He was one of a family of eight children. Six sisters and one brother are living.

Fourteen years ago he came to this city and founded the H. H. Wessendorf Company, manufacturing jeweler, at No. 724 South San Pedro street. His business grew and he soon became known as an expert in pearls. So great did his fame grow that the name "Blister Pearl King" was fastened upon him. He was a prominent member of Woodmen of the World.

Mr. Wessendorf had been ill several months, prior to his death. His family was gathered about his bedside as he passed away.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Sharp chapel.

for Rochester to attend a national church conference. The one-term idea was supported heartily by Judge Hixon, Jr., retiring president of the convention.

MISSOURIANS HONORED.

Edwin Stephens of Missouri was elected first vice-president. Mr. Stephens has served as president of the Southern Baptist convention, Baptist convention and president of the World's Alliance of Baptists, and president of the Missouri State Baptist convention. He is a prominent business man of Columbia, Mo., and chairman of the Missouri Capitol Commission.

All nominations for the various societies of the convention were made by the Missouri Baptist Society, composed of representatives of each society affiliated. As the nominations were reported by the committee, the convention went through the formality of voting by ballot, except in the case of Frank C. Nichols of Minneapolis, who was chosen to succeed D. K. Edwards of Los Angeles, as president of the American Baptist Home Mission Society.

Following are the other officers of the convention: Second vice-president, Rev. William C. Hixson, St. Louis; recording secretary, Rev. Maurice A. Levy, Brooklyn; treasurer, Rev. Frank H. Hixson, St. Louis; and other officers were elected: Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher of Los Angeles, president of the American Baptist Publication Society; Mrs. A. G. Lester of Chicago, president of the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society; Rev. Emory W. Hunt of Newton Center, Mass., president of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society; and Mrs. A. Montgomery of Rochester, president of the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Mission Society.

RAISE MONEY QUICKLY.

After the election of officers the interest of the convention centered in the raising of $14,000 for the mission societies of the church. More than $1000 of this deficit was raised through pledges received from the Los Angeles churches and societies to cash donations of 10 cents apiece.

Dr. Brougher addressed appeals from the rostrum, came in rapidly, until the secretary announced $7500. Then Dr. Brougher and several others offered to be numbered among several more who would agree to raise $100 each before August 1, and the meeting adjourned with means in sight for eliminating the entire indebtedness.

Consolidation of the American Baptist Home Mission Society and the American Baptist Publication Society flashed its menace again before the convention yesterday morning, but it was only a flash. A motion was carried to expunge from the minutes the resolution to bring the subject before each State convention. A representative of the Efficiency Commission told the convention that the body was perfectly willing to let the resolution die—and it did. There was no dissenting vote to a motion to expunge the original resolution from the minutes and by common consent the motion to expunge was also expunged.

NOONDAY DEVOTIONS.

The first Methodist Church was crowded when Dr. Cortland Meyers of Boston preached the noonday evangelistic sermon yesterday.

"If any of you want a scripture to pardon what I may say, take that sublime passage from the words of Christ that says: 'He that believeth hath everlasting life.'" said Dr. Meyers. "He that believeth if eternal human destiny hangs on that act of believing it ought to be our greatest consideration."

Dr. Meyers said that faith means, first of all, that the mind and intellect must know the facts concerning Christ, for there can be no salvation apart from knowing that Christ is the Son of God and just what He represented Himself to be. The second necessary part of believing is to love Christ. And the third will to follow Him.

"There are many men and women in the Baptist Church who have never given their heart to Christ, but I want to say to such that you may be baptized a dozen times a week and never be saved."

Keep the Children Bright and Happy.

Happy youngsters must be healthy. The digestive organs of children get out of order as readily as those of their elders, and the result is a host of ailments. When the bowels are clogged with an accumulation of refuse from the stomach the child naturally becomes cross and fretful from discomfort, and is often punished for temper when medical attention is really what is needed.

The next time your child is cross and unhappy, without apparent reason, try giving it a mild laxative. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a mild, pleasant tasting combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, and is especially recommended for children because of its freedom from all opiate or narcotic drugs and its gentle action. It is sold in drug stores everywhere. A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. D. Caldwell, 483 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Cost of Sebastian Trial.

as made by County Auditor Lewis, shows that fifteen men were kept for twenty-six days at the Hotel Trenton and that the rooms were reserved for three days longer, but not used, the unnecessary cost being $45 in this instance.

The hotel bills call for twenty-six days of room and board for twelve jurors and three bailiffs at $150 a day "as per contract."

This contract is what the Supervisors would like to see. The hotel bill was approved by Judge Fred V. Wood, but the Supervisors want to know why a high rate was paid, and will investigate.

SOME BIG ITEMS.

Into the main expense was thrown a simple item of "chauffeur's meals, $14.25," and a barber bill of $43.10. The actual cost of the trial was $212.35 and the bailiff time amounted to $540.

Supervisors who have begun to dig into the astounding expense account have found that there is another item of $49.30 for three extra bailiffs appointed to keep order. Sheriff Cline furnished them, and Supervisor Norton yesterday asked County Counsel Hixson the appointment came about without certification from the Civil Service Commission.

Mr. Hixson reported that the judge had been incurred for the Sebastian case, to maintain order in the court, but he admitted the sheriff's procedure was irregular and advised that hereafter such matters go through regular channels.

Supervisor Norton has discovered other items of expense, which are not mentioned in the report, and which were incurred for the Sebastian case. These include the salary of the District Attorney and a number of his deputies and detectives who might have been engaged in the work of prosecuting criminals, instead of buying themselves service and charge of charge of conspiracy due to politics. Taking all the loss of energy through this source, the loss of time on the part of the grand jury, which might have been engaged in more constructive business, Supervisor Norton estimates that the total cost of the trial will reach nearly $10,000, and possibly the full figure.

IN THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S REPORT.

The actual cost of the Sebastian trial will never be known—that is, the actual cost to the people in money. The defendant, Chief Sebastian, must have been put to a great expense, although it has been freely stated that Earl Rogers, H. L. Giesler, W. J. Ford, Ralph Graham and Vincent Morgan, the attorneys for Chief Sebastian, volunteered their services and charged nothing for the time they put in.

Chief Sebastian, however, lost his money in the trial, and probably came out of the trial several hundred dollars short.

Dist. Atty. Woolwine yesterday said that pay for Larry Sullivan, a private detective who was employed by him, was not included in the big bill. He said that he had been arrested in a lottery deal, and who had been released after a few days in jail on a Federal charge, was not included in the big bill.

rumblings of the Sebastian frame-up were heard, and inasmuch as Larry Sullivan was one of the men accused by Chief Sebastian of complicity in the plot to blackmail his character, it would have been utterly improper for the busy Larry to be on the county pay roll.

When Larry Sullivan was thrust into the cold and cheerless outside, W. J. Danford, his associate in several deals that have since attracted the attention of the police and Uncle Sam's inspectors became a fixture in the District Attorney's office. He had the entire to all rooms in the office at all hours, and his face was familiar to every visitor. Danford is now also in jail on a Federal charge.

The value of close association was reckoned by Sullivan and others in the lottery game that has just been broken up by the police.

While Larry Sullivan himself does not appear on the surface as having received any of the county coin so promiscuously scattered, his cousin, J. F. Sullivan, is credited with having received $21. Part of the time he was further recompensed for circulating a false story of a Mayor's candidate who opposed Chief Sebastian until the primary.

Mrs. H. N. Ellsworth received $151 in salary and $17.05 in expenses. That is the largest item in the District Attorney's bill. He is likely that the Despatch confession that the charges against the Chief were framed up and the Huntington Lane having "worked up" the case through the Despatch.

Through Supervisor Norton there will be an extensive inquiry into every angle of the expense for the Sebastian case, and it is likely that the whole scandal will be reviewed today in all its sordid details.

The Board of Supervisors takes the stand that it is charged with the expenditure of public funds, and that the Huntington Lane having "worked up" the case through the Despatch.

"SQUATTER" ENJOINED.

Kenneth Wallace, squatter de luxe, was legally ousted from his choice "homesteaded" acres on the El Molino rancho, yesterday, when Presiding Judge York issued a temporary injunction to restrain him from entering upon and destroying property. The writ was issued by the Huntington Lane having "worked up" the case through the Despatch.

The security and the income are the main features of any investment.

Suppose you are seriously considering the $100 Investment Certificates of this Association.

You would first investigate the security and would find that it consists of first mortgages only on improved property. "Excellent Security" you would say.

Then you would find that interest at the rate of 6 per cent is payable semi-annually.

With these two points settled satisfactorily you will be ready to take up other advantages which make these Certificates especially desirable. Let us go into these with you in detail. Call or write and you will find us entirely at your disposal.

practical knowledge of book-keeping, business arithmetic, business correspondence and drills in rapid calculation. The aim of this course is to make the student a thorough book-keeper, accurate and reliable.

The shorthand course comprises the Munson Pitman system, or Gregg, if preferred, touch typewriting, spelling and business English. The graduate from this course is able to take dictation easily and correctly, transcribe perfectly and answer ordinary letters without dictation.

Special attention is given to the preparatory or English department, which is intended to bring up all backward or nervous students, or those who for any reason are behind in any grammar or high school subjects. Many students aspiring to the stenographic work need the work of this department first. We solicit the attention of students of the intermediate grades.

The Palmer method of business writing, taught by a system of drills, is a wonderful example of what the pupils attain in this school, the comparison of writing done on entering the school and later proficiency proving the motto of the institution that "Nothing is good enough that can be done better."

As the work is individual, students may enter at any time, and by an independent method of working may complete the course, or courses, according to their ability and application. Evening sessions are held.

The school occupies light, commodious rooms in the Public Library Building, No. 215 West Fifth street. The school is splendidly arranged for class work or for individual instruction. Individual desks are provided, together with the proper equipment for every branch of the work. Students are supplied with the books actually used in the business they desire to follow. A handsome diploma is awarded to all students who satisfactorily complete the work.

For further particulars call, write or telephone F7329, 414 Metropolitan Building.

ATTRACTION FOR BOYS.

One of the most attractive schools for boys offered in the Times Educational Contest is that of the California Military Academy.

This academy is now in its ninth year. N. William Brick, M.A., is its principal, and Capt. F. W. Hall, B.S., is commandant. Its location is at No. 4601 West Sixteenth street, corner of South and Twenty-fifth streets, near the new school building.

The school is open all the year, and provides primary, grammar and high school courses. This ideal location for the school is in a beautiful setting, with two baseball diamonds, courts for tennis and basketball and a running track. The school is in charge of the playgrounds. There is an open-air skating rink for unlimited amusement and exhilarating exercise.

The fine gymnasium is well equipped with lockers, showers and apparatus and a specially trained instructor is in charge. A large and well-equipped manual training shop with a special instructor is an attractive feature. The faculty is composed of trained and experienced teachers who are college graduates. An army officer is in charge of the military training.

Individual attention, personal training and rapid progress are strong points in this school's management. Spanish, French and German may be studied in the primary and grammar grades.

The academy provides home life combined with stern yet kindly military discipline. The twilight hour is devoted to music, singing, dancing and games each evening. The festive seasons are brightened by appropriate parties, and entertainments are given periodically by the cadets, to which friends and patrons of the academy are invited.

C.C. TEAM PROUD POSSESSORS OF TROPHY.

Club of Riverside has a Negro Mascot Who Does Not All the Amateurs and Professionals in South—Week End to be Busy Affair.

BY AIMA WHITAKER.

The Los Angeles Country Club is the tournament at the municipal golf links, 18-hole qualifying round on Saturday which may be played morning or afternoon. Match play is Sunday and Monday. They anticipate at least eighty entries and several country club golfers are going over for it. Henry W. Keller, for one who was largely instrumental in getting a city course for Los Angeles. Then there is the open tournament at the Los Angeles Country Club, 73 holes medal play on the 25th and 26th for which everybody who considers he can play golf will enter, amateurs, professionals, caddies and natural golfers. Every professional will be paired with a leading amateur. Last year the three Martins won first honors and the best amateur was E. S. Armstrong.

And the first baseball match of the season in the country club league will be played on the Midway field, between Los Angeles and Midway. Artie Shaffer in command of the visitors. Norwood Howard of the home team.

THE LADIES.
The women golfers of the Redlands and Victoria clubs have accepted the invitation of the Los Angeles Country Club to play off their team match on the neutral course on Thursday next. The club will entertain the visitors with luncheon and tea, and generally play the hospitalities. The San Gabriel women players are also holding a golf event on Friday, not an invitation tournament as at first suggested, but a strictly club event.

A party of women players are also going out to the municipal links on Wednesday.

THE TOM MORRIS TROPHY.
If the Los Angeles team wins the Tom Morris trophy, this year, it is theirs for keeps. Hence agitated consultations that the pick of the club of them may participate on June 18. Capt. John Wilson has selected Manabeth Armstrong (whose wife is a member of all the clubs is equally eligible on either team.) Frederickson, Jerome, Cash, Niven, Schaefer and Wilson. His substitutes are Beaver, W. R. Miller, Spinks, Bagby, Bradford, Zutta, Edwards and Walton.

CONGRESSES OF GOOD ROADS TO BE IN NORTH.

are showing interest in the congress and have appointed men to personally represent them at the convention. The city of San Francisco has issued an official invitation to the Governor of each State, Mayors of all Pacific Coast cities, Supervisors and commissioners of each county, American Bar Association, American Bankers' Association and all other bodies similarly interested in this great good roads movement.

ENTHUSIASTIC.
A large number of Los Angeles and Southern California roads enthusiasts have expressed themselves as anxious to attend the congress. They are M. N. Avery, Sidney L. Briggs, N. W. Blanchard, A. G. Bartlett, Robert N. Bulla, E. P. Borsybell, Andrew Copp, Jr., Louis M. Cole, Wesley Clark, C. Durgin, D. L. Edwards, F. O. Engstrom, A. P. Fleming, Edward Germain, W. J. Hollingsworth, J. C. Jerome, F. H. Joyner, Bradner W. Lea, M. F. McLaughlin, James O. Moore and George S. Smith of Los Angeles; H. E. Swan, Ontario; Robert C. Neely, Baldwin Park; D. C. Lettarte, Redlands; E. W. Lyon, Redlands; E. C. Hines, Upland; W. P. Hedrick, Azusa; T. L. Goch, Riverside; John E. Boal, National City; L. V. W. Byrnes, Riverside; J. B. Coulson, Pasadena; Benjamin Dupuy, Long Beach; J. R. Edwards, Redlands, and Oscar Ford, Redlands.

Portland (Or.) will stage a big athletic meet on June 11, the occasion being the Pacific Northwest Association tryouts for the Far Western championships. It will be held under direction of the Multnomah Club and the Rose Festival Association and includes a five-mile race. Such athletes as Gille of Vancouver, Con Walsh of Seattle; Beasley of Vancouver, George Philbrook and Sam Bellah of the Multnomah Club are well as college stars will take part. Gold watches will be awarded winners.

HUNS SLIP ONE OVER.

The training table was abolished from the Southern California conference in Italy through the efforts of Pomona, yet the U.S.C. students claim that Pomona has a training table. The majority of the Pomona men eat at the inn, where they have all the advantages of the training table. There are some of the students who work their way through college as waiters at the inn, and these also are technically on training-table diet. Occidental and U.S.C. cannot maintain training tables under the conference rules, and an unfair advantage is claimed.

POOR, POOR HARRY COOPER.

Actor Picks Out Garment on the Run and Does Not Find Out His Mistake Until He Tries to Put It On—His Idea was to Knock Them Dead at the Beach.

Harry Cooper of Orpheum time called upon his old-time friend George Cline yesterday and then made a speedy run down to Venice for a bit of a splash.

Before going down to the beach he picked out a bathing suit, done in the season's latest colors. "This will do," he said to the clerk, pointing to a neatly-folded suit in the size-24 pile. "These creamy California water tops are the real thing. Wait till I flash myself in the water make-up. Just knock 'em dead that's all."

Arriving at Venice, Cooper made haste to execute his quick changes. In just about three minutes there was a riot call in the bathhouse.

"What's wrong, pal?" solicited a venturesome attendant, "don't you suit it?"

"Don't know," came the answer. "Don't dare put it on. With all this ribbon and sailor-boy color, the thing looks 18 carat, but somebody copped the pants. Just knock 'em dead that's all."

Cooper opened the door of his dressing-room and held up a snappy looking costume of the same color. It was a perfect 34 straight, one of those fifty slips.

"That's a lady bathing suit," announced the attendant.

"Well, the doll that wears that suit sure must have a lot of ability. I wonder why they never told me that. Ladies in sailor-boy suits like men, only worse, without any pants? I guess I'll have to wear one of the bath garments doled out by the bath-house management. No chance to show a little real class."

KLAWNS COACHING BASKETBALL TEAMS

Coach Klawns of the Illinois Athletic Club, who recently joined the Los Angeles Athletic Club, is coaching the club boys for next year's A.A.U. meet. A large aggregation of fellows are turning out every Thursday night at the club and by the time basketball season. News around Klawns ought to have a good line on all the material.

This basketball practice is open to any person who thinks he has ability. He does not necessarily have to be a club member to go out for the team. Klawns has established a name for himself as a basketball coach in Illinois, having turned out teams that have beat everything in sight. In his recent trip to the Coast he decided to make Los Angeles his home and Bob Weaver of the club immediately signed Klawns as the Los Angeles Athletic Club basketball instructor.

LOUISVILLE CLUB HEAD RELEASED.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WRITER.)
LOUISVILLE (Ky.) May 24.—O. H. Wathen, president of the Louisville American Association baseball club, announced today he had requested the resignation of John F. Hayden, manager of the team since 1907. Ezra Midkiff, third baseman, was named to be appointed successor to Hayden, Wathen said.

"Failure to get results with the material supplied" is the reason President Wathen gives for releasing Hayden.

The Century Road Club of America will hold its annual fifty-mile handicap bicycle road race at Buena Vista, starting from Floral Park, Long Island.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR TOPANGA CELEBRATION.

WITH the opening of the new broad highway through Topanga Canyon next Saturday one of the newest "wonderlands of the West" will be unveiled to eastern and local visitors.

Plans were completed yesterday for the parking of the many hundreds of automobiles which will visit the canyon on Saturday, by officials of the Automobile Club of Southern California, while preparations have been begun by H. J. Whitley and his associates, which will include a mountain lunch served in barbeque style, with an outdoor cabaret and the entertainment of all guests.

More than 6700 individual invitations have been sent to visiting motorists and to members of the Automobile Club to attend the barbeque and "festivities" in the heart of the canyon. These were mailed last night and responses will be received tomorrow at the Auto Club headquarters on Figueroa street, when all motorists who are planning to join the Mayor and county highway officials will apply for permits.

The line of march has been decided upon. All motorists will meet either at a point near Calhoun avenue in Hollywood at 10:15 Saturday morning, or in Los Angeles at the Broadway entrance to the Courthouse at 10 o'clock sharp.

THE PARADE.
Led by President Frank L. Baker of the Automobile Club in the pilot car "Oscar Kate," followed by the official cars, carrying the Mayor, visiting county highway commissioners, neighboring county and city officials, and all Los Angeles officers, the long parade will swing out over Sunset.

And Still Another Convert!

When an old-time motorist, a man who has been driving $5000 cars for years, makes up his mind he's going to cut down that big unnecessary investment he's been carrying and buy a less costly car, you may be dead sure that the car he picks is right!

It's got to be right! He knows what kind of stuff automobile builders are putting in their cars and he's been mighty particular to watch what those cars are doing.

A man in the $5000 class came in and picked out a 6-cylinder KisselKar a few days ago. But he told us he'd been keeping tab on it for more than a year.

The KisselKar sold itself—after a systematic sizing up and comparison with the three highest priced cars made in America.

You can afford to emulate this connoisseur's example. Look into the record of the KisselKar as searchingly as you know how. Get a list of KisselKar owners' names from us and talk to them in their own homes.

And this is what you'll find:

That KisselKars have almost unbelievable power—strength—dependability; that they are the easiest cars on repair bills you ever heard of, and that the remarkable service to KisselKar owners and the unusually large amount of conscience put into KisselKars by their builders make them the most consistent and conservative automobile buy in America.

If a $5000 man found the KisselKar to represent the best investment in motor value that he could find, it is even a better investment for you!

Models: KisselKar 4-54, $1250; 6-41 KisselKar, $1500; two or four door, five-passenger; $1500 for the 7-passenger, four-door, and $1500 for the 7-passenger, three-door model. 6-44, price $1500, 5-passenger, two or four-door, or 7-passenger, four-door; 6-46 KisselKar, price $2000, 7-passenger, four-door, 5-4-5, L. AT THE STAGE

Door

Allen Dwan, chief director with the Famous Players in the West, and at present directing Mary Pickford, has signed up with the Fox Film Company in New York.

Pauline Bush of the Universal, now Mrs. Dwan, has likewise signed up with the Fox company. She is to play leads.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwan are among the most popular and best known film people in the business, and their departure will leave a place not easily to be filled. They leave next week.

Raoul Walsh of the Reliance is another popular actor who will go East for the Fox company. In short, it is understood that several of the best film people in the Southland have either made contracts or are about to do so with said company.

Curtain

Memorial services for Charles Frohman will be held at the Mason temple this morning from 10:30 to 11:30 o'clock, and Manager Wyatt has arranged a program for the occasion, which includes brief addresses by Rev. R. Mecht, Rev. Dr. Francis, Rev. Baker, P. Lee and especially by Raymond Hitchcock, a long-time personal friend of the dead theatrical magnate. Prof. Maine will conduct the music.

There will be no performance at the Mason tonight, but, in response to the great demand for seats, a special matinee has been arranged for Friday.

Made One

Page Peters, who has been playing leads in the films for the Leaky Company, was married to Miss Ruth Fisher last Saturday at Oakland. Mrs. Peters has also been a picture actress, her stage name being Ruth Darling.

New Boss

Deana Worley took possession of the Empress as manager yesterday. It is stated Mr. Worley found most of the furniture—the safe, for instance—had much the worse for wear. He is having Fred Follette's office chair rebuilt, however.

It is said the Lewy contracts run out in the course of about two weeks, and Manager Considine is looking his own attractions.

Everybody Dots It

Mary O'Connor, chief scenario writer at the Reliance, says everybody in the world is writing scenarios and sending them to her. She does not even except the girl who serves her at dinner downtown.

"I'm afraid now even to go out and take in the milk of morning," says Miss O'Connor, "for the milkman left a scenario in one of the bottles instead of milk last week."

Trading

James Ewin, who will go to Europe in the course of a month or two, on his way to Mecca, where he will attempt to take motion pictures of the sacred shrines, is undergoing a strenuous course of physical culture.

He resides with Mr. Louis Bessington at the Burbank company out on West Adams street, and every day practices with the medicine ball, the gloves and the foils. He also takes long walks. He doesn't smoke or drink, nor even tea and coffee.

"My difficulties may be great enough," he says, "without adding to them by having to deny myself some stimulant which it may be impossible to procure at times."

Little Sister

Mae Marsh and her mother have just returned from visiting the San Francisco fair.

Miss Marsh viewed "The Clansman" in this city alone have seen this picture play.

Lillian Gish as Elsie Stoneman, in "The Clansman" at Cline's Auditorium. "The Clansman" has simply pulverized all motion-picture records. It is now entering its thirteenth week at Cline's Auditorium. It is estimated that over 300,000 persons in this city alone have seen this picture play.

The Empress Theater Changes Hands.

Etta Bryan rings up the curtain

For the first show to be given at the Empress under the second Considine regime. Dean Worley, who is to be manager of the house as under the previous Considine reign, stands at the lady's left.

while in Oakland, and had the unique experience, never enjoyed probably by anybody else except Tom Sawyer, of watching people weep as she died and overhearing what they said.

Miss Marsh was also a guest at the San Francisco Press Club jinks, and when introduced as "The Little Sister" she received an ovation.

Dazzling.

Universal City was brightened by the presence of Manager Carl Walker of the Pantages for a few hours on last Sunday.

Other Dazzlers.

Grace and Beauty will be at Pantages this week. Don't you know what G. and B. stand for? Any vaudeville performer can inform you those are the nicknames given by the profane to Alma Grace and Theresa Pape.

Real Facecards.

"Girle" of Bankoff and Girle at the Orpheum this week is a Brooklyn society girl who refuses to give her real name.

Bankoff is the sincere moniker of her partner, who at one time understudied Mordkin, and appeared for him at several performances while the noted dancer was ill.

Light Fantastic.

The Film Club, composed of some hundred motion-picture actors of Southern California, will give a ball at the Hotel Potter, Santa Barbara, the evening of May 21.

Lottie Pickford and Irving Cummings, stars of the "Diamond in the Sky" serial, now being shown at the San Francisco exposition will appear in a special dance.

Edward Coxen is president, John Stepping vice-president, W. H. Vaughn secretary, and S. P. Juergens treasurer, of the new organization.

Elsie Overcome.

Elsie Janis, who appears on the film this week at Tally's, is reported to be suffering from a nervous breakdown at a small town on the English coast. Miss Janis was present in the tower during a recent aeroplane raid, and she received so great a nervous shock that she was confined to her bed.

War Note.

The Pia Trio, playing at the Hippodrome, vice-president, W. H. Vaughn secretary, and S. P. Juergens treasurer, of the new organization.

Poor John.

John Drew has sacrificed his famous mustache to the exigencies of "Rosemary." Oh, girl, it's the same mustache he used to twist so cute-like whenever he started in to make love.

His other gesture is left, thank heaven—that quick little turn of his head. Let's pray he won't get a stiff neck, that's all. Or the show will be off.

Anecdotes.

There was a story contest of repertoire days on at the Burbank, the other day at rehearsal. Here are the blue-ribboners:

Margerie Rambeau: "When I played the Lady Isabel in 'East Lynne' I never would learn the lines of my death scene. My mother used to lie under the bed, and whisper the lines and I'd repeat them over after her. One night we were invited to a party, and mother wanted me to die quickly. But I was enjoying drink hugely that night, and took my time to it. Mother ran a hat pin up through the mattress, and I died swiftly with one terrible squawk."

Louis Bessington: "When I played 'East Lynne' once, away up in the mining districts of Arizona, we got a lovely boy for Isabel's son, but he was a Swede and couldn't say a line—didn't, in fact, know a word of English. So we got an old actor, with a big, hoarse voice to crawl under the bed and say the lines. They were supposed to be coming out of that golden-haired angel's mouth, but the miners, I guess, weren't particular, so the show got over all right."

Walter Catlett: "I was playing in the Gilbert and Sullivan operas away down South one season, and Katisha suddenly got sick just as the curtain was going up on 'The Mikado.' I doubled as Katisha and Coco, and sometimes didn't have time to change costumes, either, but merely my voice. But I don't think the audience knew what the show was all about, anyhow, so it didn't matter."

Brain Throbs.

The Drama League held a meeting at the Little Theater yesterday with Oliver Hinsdale, leading man of the Philadelphia Little Theater, as principal speaker. Mr. Hinsdale spoke of the Granville Barker method of staging plays.

Movement is on foot to induce the Little Theater Company of Philadelphia to come to Los Angeles and stage some plays.

RECORD TRIP TO LAKE TAHOE MADE

A. L. Richardson of Pasadena has just completed a record trip to Lake Tahoe. He started from Los Angeles and made the run via Bishop, Lone Pine, Bridgeport and Gardnerville. The actual running time was only thirty-six hours.

The roads are reported in very good condition. Several parties have already started on the trip and it is possible to complete the journey in three days. On account of the excellent roads and the wonderful scenery the Lake Tahoe trip will probably be one of the most popular this season. Many people motoring to the San Francisco exposition will stop for a few days at the lake, either going up or on the return route.

Melbourne Inman, the English style billiard champion, beat George Gray, the Australian champion, by 453 points in their recent 18,000-point match in London.

LEADING AMATEUR SPORTS

REPORT FULL COFFERS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, May 24.—The prosperous condition of the leading amateur sport controlling bodies of the United States is attested by the annual reports now being filed by the treasurers of the various associations. In almost every case the close of the fiscal year shows increased sums in the treasuries over the preceding twelve months and indications are that these balances will be added to during the present season.

So far as actual figures are available the United States National Lawn Tennis Association leads with a surplus of close to $24,000, due, in part, to the revenue derived from the series of Davis cup matches played in the country last summer between the teams representing Great Britain, Australia, Germany, Canada and the United States. The Polo Association also greatly increased its funds as a result of the international games at Meadowbrook, but the exact sum has never been made public although it is understood to run into thousands.

The Amateur Athletic Union has more than $22,000 in its treasury and the United States Golf Association about $12,000. The Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America has a reserve fund of more than $6000, notwithstanding the annual dividend declared to college athletes associations conforming to certain rules of the organization. The books of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen show a balance of more than $1500, and even the newly-formed United States Football Association had a surplus of close to $500 at the end of its first year's existence.

In professional baseball ranks the financial records of the leagues and clubs are not published, but an inkling of the heavy expense that the magnates have been under during the past year or so is given by the report of the National Baseball Commission. At the close of 1913 the commission statements gave the money on hand at that time as $27,709.92. On January 1 of this year that sum had shrunk to $14,486.57. To the balance in the treasury on December 31, 1913, there was added $41,958.12, but the debit sheets of the commission shows expense of $68,178.68, which leaves the organization with a smaller surplus than has been the case in many years.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

INDIANAPOLIS, May 24.—Members of the new Auto Drivers' Protective Association, an organization of racing pilots founded in Indianapolis a few days ago for the purpose of sharing control of the sport with the owners of speedways and the American Automobile Association, have been invited to a conference by Carl G. Fisher, president of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, at a very early date.

Fisher says he has several things he would like to say to the racing men, with the idea of inducing them to avoid any programs which, in his opinion, would be detrimental to the best interests of the game. He thus believes it would be very unwise for the new association to attempt to dictate to track owners in financial matters, such as the payment of entry fees, bonuses and the division of receipts resulting from elimination trials prior to a race.

Racing drivers, says Fisher, are already the most favored of any class of sport professionals. The prizes they compete for are larger than in any other line of sport. With speedways being built all over the country, their chances for financial emolument is unparalleled. For this reason, says Fisher, drivers should be careful not to handicap the development of the game, but strictly mind their own business.

CHARACTER—Personality. When you meet a man you instinctively catalog him—decide for yourself just what kind of a man he is and whether or not you're going to like him.

If he's wishy-washy, or overbearing, or bitter, or loud, or effeminate, or dull, or uninteresting, you're through, right there.

It is character that decides you.

Beverages have character.

Some can't outlast a single meeting.

Others are wishy-washy, effeminate and uninteresting. You forget them—quickly.

Others are overbearing—too decided in flavor or effect. You avoid them.

COCA-COLA has the character, the personality of a fine, wholesome, manly man. It meets the palates of men and women on this common ground.

It is pleasing without being effeminate.

It is vigorous without overdoing it.

It bears repetition without losing the freshness of appeal that first charmed you.

You—be you man or woman—meet in this beverage those qualities that are admirably manly in a man.

Instantly you will decide that you like it for its character—its personality. Time will prove the soundness of your judgment.

For 29 years COCA-COLA has been put to the test. Daily for 29 years it has passed the lips of the American people—has borne the test of repetition without losing its zest.

For 29 years it has proved its wholesomeness—its vigor—its deliciousness—its character.

You can prove to yourself in one glassful what 29 years have built into its reputation.

NEW DIRECTORS FOR PASADENA.

Board of Trade Names Seven to Steer Destinies.

Mexicans Shoot a Revolver Duel in Dark.

Women Plan Battle Under Mulberry Tree.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

PASADENA, May 23.—Seven directors were elected at the annual meeting of the Pasadena Board of Trade last night. Only three of the old directors would consent to allow their names to be used again as candidates, and all three were re-elected. These were F. E. Wilcox, J. H. Pearson and S. Hazard Halstead.

The four new directors elected were L. A. Broadway, H. G. Chaffee, John J.

Mitchell and L. L. Test. Fifteen names were put in nomination and the seven receiving the highest number of votes were elected.

Interest in the election was greater this year than ever before and several hundred members turned out to the meeting. T. P. Lukens, the retiring president, delivered his valedictory address and summed up the work accomplished by the organization during the past year.

In the work mapped out for the coming year Dean Damon of Thorpe suggested that the city limits should be extended northward to embrace the Pasadena watershed in the mountains and southward to the Puente Hills, embracing South Pasadena.

President Lukens said that if the twenty-two square miles of mountain land north of Pasadena were annexed to the city and set out to municipal forests, within twenty years the revenue from this source would be not only sufficient to pay all the taxes of the city but would also pay a dividend as well. This had been demonstrated in many German cities, he said, which had set out municipal forests.

REVOLVER DUEL.

Two Mexicans engaged in an old-fashioned pistol duel last night down on the Santa Fe tracks near Sonoma town. So much racket did they kick up with their yelling and shooting that a riot call was sent in to the police station.

Officer Culver, with the bullets singing around his ears, charged the duelists and succeeded in arresting Antonio Gonzalez. He had a big smoking revolver in one hand and a dozen cartridges in the other. The other gunman escaped in the darkness.

At the police station Gonzalez told Culver that an attempt had been made on his life. He claimed to be ignorant of the identity of his assailant.

OLD MULBERRY TREE.

Under the famous old mulberry tree in the garden of Mrs. J. R. Giddings of No. 1318 East Colorado street will be staged next Thursday what is expected to be the hottest fight ever indulged in by the mothers of Pasadena for the officers of the local Parent-Teacher Federation.

The name of the incumbent, Mrs. Jerome O. Cross, has already been sent in for the president, and each will be the nominee of the mothers of the day, will be on the ballot against her.

Special interest attaches to this meeting, as three of the most prominent of the national officers will be in attendance at the event, and each will deliver an address. These will be Mrs. Frederick Schott, national president; Mrs. Bright, vice-president, and Mrs. Higgins, president of the Massachusetts State Mothers' Congress.

J. J. Whitehead, the negro who was brought back from Chicago Sunday night to answer to a forged charge, appeared in Police Court yesterday morning. The date for his preliminary hearing was set for June 4.

Two complaints were read to the court. One was for the late "Fighting Bob" Evans, who was recently re-elected for a fourth year to the office of city clerk. One complaint charged the man with obtaining $150 on a bogus check, and the other with obtaining $480 by the same method. Mr. Tanner's name was used on the checks.

CITY BRIEFS.

Dr. Jeremiah M. Rhoades, superintendent of schools of Pasadena, who was recently re-elected for a fourth year to the office of city clerk. One complaint charged the man with obtaining $150 on a bogus check, and the other with obtaining $480 by the same method. Mr. Tanner's name was used on the checks.

As a result of a conference between the City Commission and the county officials it is expected that Pasadena will join with Los Angeles county and city in the work of the joint board of appraisal of property for assessment purposes.

More than 500 Baptists, delegates to the Northern Baptist Convention, which just closed its work in Los Angeles, visited Pasadena yesterday afternoon and were taken for a drive about the city. A public reception was held at the Hotel Green in their honor, the laws around the hotel being dotted with light refreshments were served.

Funeral services were held this morning at the chapel of Turner & Stevens for Mrs. Elizabeth Mather, widow of T. W. Mather, founder of the Mather Department Store. Mrs. Mather died on Sunday afternoon following an operation at the Pasadena Hospital. She was 55 years old.

FIREMEN ORGANIZE.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

SAN GABRIEL, May 24.—The first fire company in the history of the city has been organized. The truck chemical engine, fully equipped with fire-fighting apparatus, has been received by the city, and has been followed by the organization of a fire department. The project has been the enthusiastic support of all the citizens, making the city independent of neighboring cities in case of fire. The members already organized and practicing regular drill include: Mayor Daken, Judge Albert May, John Calvin Stockberger, E. H. Stouffer, Leo Davis, Ed Salcido, C. E. Slack, Will Slack, C. L. Atkinson, M. Salazar, R. Manser, P. S. Verdugo, Will Thomas and Will McCormick, with A. W. Roe as chief of the department.

CARNIVAL PLANS.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

SAN GABRIEL, May 24.—Plans for the festa to be given on the completion of the new lighting system that is being installed on Mission drive indicate that the festivities will be the most elaborate of any similar affair ever given here. The lighting system will likely be completed early in June and a three-day carnival will ensue. A street fair, dancing and concerts on the plaza, and a bull fight are among the features under consideration.

IMPERIAL BONDS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

IMPERIAL, May 24.—By a vote of 151 to 14 Imperial today voted $365,000 in bonds for a new sewer system. It joins with El Centro in laying the main from here to New River, paying two-fifths of the cost of that section.

THE GOVERNOR'S RAY-SO.

The Governor's surprising announcement is contained in a letter to the Assemblyman, who today said: "I have received a long letter from Gov. Johnson in which he states that he can sign the bill, but that he should be placed on a level with other members of the State, and come under the provisions of the proposed bond issue."

"The bonds are over the desert and are not needed for the intercommunication of the county towns, and are purely State projects. The Holt-

FOREST RANGERS BECOMING ACTIVE.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

AZUSA, May 24.—Beginning tomorrow morning rangers under the direction of Forest Ranger Sloan will cut out large forces of men to clear away the underbrush and freeways in the mountains. From Glendora to El Centro, a distance of six miles, the work will be in charge of Ranger Franklin. On account of the late spring rains there is an unusual growth of underbrush and grass.

The opening of the summer season in the mountains will be officially recognized on the first of the month when an extra force of men and guards will be put to work to prevent forest fires. The fire rules will be more vigorously enforced this year than usual on account of the increase of campers and travelers in the mountains.

FILL VACANT PLACE.

A deadlock which has lasted in the City Council for three weeks has been broken through the efforts of the Citizens' Committee to find a man satisfactory to the members of the board for the place left vacant by the resignation of Councilman Thompson.

At a joint meeting held Saturday of the members of the City Council and a committee of citizens the name of D. U. Smith was proposed and he was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy which will give the city from the usual light of an election.

Mr. Smith was the most surprised of the persons concerned, as he had not been consulted regarding the office. He will serve until the next regular election in April, when the terms of Councilmen Clark and Petty will also expire.
